On Call International Teams with Aetna Student Health to Provide Travel Assistance Services

SALEM, N.H. – May 28, 2008 – On Call International is pleased to announce its partnership with the nation's leading student health insurance administrator, Aetna Student Health (<http://aetnastudenthealth.com/>). Under the collaboration, On Call will provide its emergency medical and travel assistance services to Aetna's more than 450,000 higher-education student members.

No matter where a student might be traveling, On Call's multi-lingual assistance team will operate 24/7/365 to respond to a variety of medical and travel-related emergencies. On Call's U.S.-trained physicians will be made immediately available to react to a student's medical needs, including the need for emergency medical evacuation, critical care monitoring and evaluation, physician and hospital referrals or prescription drug assistance.

Further, On Call will provide security and legal services to students, including political evacuation in the event of social or governmental unrest, and access to a legal hot line and bail bond. Other travel assistance services included under the new partnership between Aetna and On Call could range from translation services, to emergency cash assistance, to transporting a family member to be with loved ones, as well as managing the return of deceased remains.
